

FINAL WORD

Involved Trustees who seek truth by asking difficult questions, even in the face of dissent and conflict; who demand excellence and accountability, even in the face of painful consequences; who speak up and speak out, even in the face of unpopularity – these are the Trustees to whom the School is indebted for its future.